THC/N0213 Manually clean furniture and surfaces

| | |
|---|---|
| Cleaning vertical spaces, fittings and internal glass spaces | To be competent, the user/ individual must be able to:PC20. loosen dirt that is stuck on to the glass surface without causing damagePC21. remove loose dust and debris first making sure it spreads as little as possiblePC22. clean walls (interior) so they are free from dust, cobwebs, dirt, grease, spots and stainsPC23. choose a cleaning agent and equipment that are right for the surface and type of dirtPC24. follow manufacturer's instructions correctly when one mixes and apply the cleaning agentPC25. apply cleaning agents to fixtures and lights and ensure they are clean and workablePC26. check that heating, lighting and ventilation systems are set correctly after cleaningPC27. rub off the dirt thoroughly from the glass surface and remove it without damaging the surfacePC28. put everything back in the right place when one have finished efficiently, correctly and safelyPC29. collect and segregate waste according to instruction without causing any spillage or clutter |
| Cleaning desktops, workstations and office area | To be competent, the user/ individual must be able to:PC30. clean the area at regular intervals with appropriate dustersPC31. use appropriate dusters and chemicals for cleaning workstation, desktops, printer, telephones etc.PC32. ensure that papers and documents are kept in order on the workstationPC33. ensure sound-proof cleaningPC34. avoid cleaning at peak working hours |
| Knowledge and Understanding (K) | |
| A. Organizational Context (Knowledge of the company / organization and its processes) | The user/individual on the job needs to know and understand:KA1. legislation, standards, policies, and procedures followed in the company relevant to own employment and performance conditionsKA2. relevant occupational health and safety requirements applicable in the work placeKA3. importance of working in clean and safe environmentKA4. own job role and responsibilities and sources for information pertaining to employment terms, entitlements, job role and responsibilitiesKA5. reporting structure, inter-dependent functions, lines and procedures in the work areaKA6. relevant people and their responsibilities within the work areaKA7. escalation matrix and procedures for reporting work and employment related issuesKA8. documentation and related procedures applicable in the context of employment and workKA9. importance and purpose of documentation in context of employment and work |

THC/N0213 Manually clean furniture and surfaces

| | |
|---|---|
| B. Technical Knowledge | The user/individual on the job needs to know and understand:KB1. relevant OH&S procedures and guidelines concerning cleaning operationsKB2. workplace and servicing procedures & policies for carrying out cleaning tasks in the workplaceKB3. risks when carrying out cleaning tasks and related precautions to control accidentsKB4. cleaning standards required in the workplaceKB5. site layout and obstaclesKB6. storage, service and upkeep procedure for cleaning equipment and consumablesKB7. application of relevant industrial regulations and requirementsKB8. the dangers of working at height using step ladders and how to do so safelyKB9. the range of cleaning agents available for spot cleaning and how to choose the right one for the type of mark and the surface one is cleaningKB10. the range of cleaning agents available for furniture and how to choose the right one for the type of soil and the surface one is cleaningKB11. various kinds of cleaning agents and equipment to be used for the particular type of fabricsKB12. importance of following manufacturers' instructions when one mixes and apply cleaning agents and what might happen if one does notKB13. importance of putting up hazard signs and protect surrounding areasKB14. precautions to be taken when using ladders or moving furniture during cleaningKB15. importance of protecting surrounding areas when cleaning interior surfaces, furnishings, fixtures and fittingsKB16. importance of testing for the colour fastness and possible consequences of failing to testKB17. locations where colour fastness tests should and should not be carried outKB18. why one should remove loose dust and debris first from all areas to be cleaned and what might happen one doesn'tKB19. how to clean soft surfaces like furnishings, upholstery, curtains etc.KB20. how to identify and report equipment that needs repair or servicingKB21. why one should not try to spot clean non-washable surfaces and what might happen if one doesKB22. reasons to avoid over-wetting the surfaceKB23. reason for reporting any marks that cannot be reached or spot cleaned and who one should report toKB24. why paint or anything else that is stuck on the glass should be scraped off firstKB25. how to scrape without damaging the glass surfaceKB26. why the area around the glass should be left dryKB27. how to tell if something should not be thrown away, why it is important to check and who to check withKB28. how frequently windows & glasses should be cleaned in the organizationKB29. protective clothing to be worn when cleaningKB30. why one should not mix cleaning materialsKB31. the types of problems one might come across when cleaning windows how to deal with these |